Dear Birth Parent,

We wanted to take a moment to say Thank You!! Thank you for being you; you are loving, caring, and selfless for choosing to place your beautiful child up for adoption. We want you to know that your baby will have an endless abundance of love, support, encouragement, and laughter from us and our families. Your child will always know where he/she came from and how special of a person you are. Thank you & God Blessings!

Matt and I are High School sweethearts. We have been together 14 years and married for 10. We tried for many years to have our own biological child. It took us a very long time to realize that God wanted us to have children but not in the way that we had anticipated. In March 2015, we brought home our beautiful daughter Sophia. Our lives have never been the same since.

Sophia, is by far the best gift that God has ever given to us! She has brought us (and our families) so much Love, Happiness, and Joy... it's very difficult to express just what a blessing she has been for us. Not only were we blessed with our daughter, but we've gained some amazing people in our lives from it all. Sophia, can't wait to be a big sister and gain a partner in mischief!

Matt (written by Stephanie) is truly my soul mate and best friend. He is smart, funny, an incredibly supportive husband, and an amazing father. Matt has the type of personality that he can speak with anyone, and make everyone around him laugh. I am truly blessed to call him my husband.

Stephanie (written by Matt) is my best friend. She is a loving, caring individual that always puts her family first. Stephanie is funny and has a bubbly personality that puts a smile on other people's faces. I am lucky to have her as my partner in life.

As a family we enjoy being active and spending time with family and friends. We love being outdoors and exploring Gods creation. Our hobbies include swimming, fishing, kayaking, hunting, and boating. In the summer we always find ourselves surrounded by water – either at Matt's parents' house on Lake Montcalm, or on the Grand River with Stephanie's parents.

We want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for considering us in adopting your child. Your baby will be given a Christian life, filled with family, and unconditional love.

Thank you and God Bless! Matt, Stephanie & Sophia
